

Bethany Graham & Kevin Marion

October 18, 2008
Phoenix, Arizona

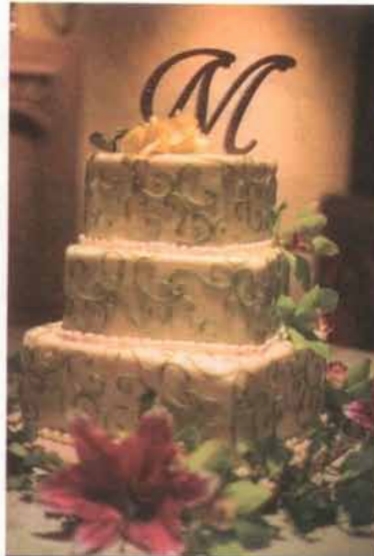

Bethany and Kevin met on the first day of college in Flint Michigan and became instant friends. This friendship grew around their mutual love for hot rods and school. Finally after two years of watching as each fell in and out of love with others, they decided maybe they were meant to be together. But as any engineering major will tell you, life outside of studying is difficult at best. With graduation came big decisions and one was to get serious about each other. Kevin asked Bethany to marry him and she said, "Yes."

Under the expert guidance of Amina Michelle of Some Like it Classic, they put together the wedding of their dreams and the party of their lives for eighty friends and family who came to witness and celebrate with them.

The wedding and reception were held on the patio of a family friend. The creative owners of Your Event Florist turned the patio and pool area into a tropical garden to include huge floral arrangements with luminarias floating in the pool.

The wedding weekend included an informal pool party at the Residence Inn by Marriott and brunch on the morning following the wedding giving the couple plenty of time with the guests. After a great wedding, Bethany and Kevin left for their honeymoon at Walt Disney World in Florida.
